

Local healthcare for local businesses

Now is the time for self-insured businesses to revisit their benefits strategy.

LCMC Health offers a direct contracting opportunity to better serve the healthcare needs of both fully-insured and self-insured employers in the greater New Orleans area. We're giving New Orleans one more reason to celebrate: a healthier future for our city. With powerful partnerships and a unique offering, we give employers the opportunity to offer more value to their employees than traditional health plans – all while saving money and cutting costs.

As rate increases become the norm, employers need to future-proof their benefits by finding alternative health plan networks that support the needs of their employees – while supporting the financial needs of their business.
